MEMORANDUM

TO: All Members

FROM: Mick Farrell – Branch Secretary

DATE: 4th of May 2012

SUBJECT: Branch Secretary

Those members that have read the April newsletter and or the Secretary's report to the 2011 Annual BCOM conference; will be aware that I did not nominate for the Branch Secretary's position in the recent triennial elections.

Consequently, as of 5pm on the 8th of May 2012 in line with Fair Work Australia's notification Henry Lawrence assumes the Secretary's role.

I will however be remaining on as National President of the UFU for a point in time yet to be determined.

On retiring from the Aviation Branch Secretary's position I want to thank all the members, the Organisers and the past and present BCOM representatives for the support and assistance I have received in my tenure as Secretary over the last ten and a half years.

It has been an absolute privilege to have been the Aviation Branch Secretary and I thank you all for that opportunity and the backing that was always provided.

Please make Henry feel welcome as your new Secretary and give him the total backup that he needs. Henry has a lot of experience in the UFUA but he will require your complete commitment to the cause to assist him, just as anybody would in carrying out the role of Aviation Branch Secretary.

In Unity

Mick Farrell
Branch Secretary
